ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This study has been undertaken under the guidance of Dr. Prahallad Panda, M.A., Ph.D., Professor in Economics, Berhampur University. I desire to record my deep sense of gratitude to Professor Panda for taking immense interest in my research work and guiding me throughout the preparation of this dissertation. His keen and constant guidance in the progress of this work was a constant source of inspiration and encouragement which captivated my heart from the very beginning of this thesis till its completion. The most valuable comments of Dr. Panda on my work have helped me to a greater extent in eliminating the bottlenecks while preparing the thesis. However, the responsibility of any mistake of this thesis will be borne by me but not by my guide.

I also express my indebtedness to Dr. B.S.Murty, Reader in Industrial Relations & Labour Welfare, Berhampur University, Dr. P.K.Das, Senior Statistician, Labour Commissioner's office, Bhubaneswar, Mr. B.Das, Lecturer in Economics, Science College, Hinjilicut, and especially to my colleague Mr. N.M.Patnaik, Lecturer in Economics and my revered teacher Mr. D.Chaudhury, Lecturer in Economics, K.S.U.B.College, Bhanjanagar for their encouragement and kind co-operation.

My thanks are also due to the members of the staff of the National Library, Calcutta, Bureau of Statistics and Economics, Bhubaneswar, District Collectorate's library, Chatrapur, Ganjam. I am also thankful to the officials of District Rural Development Agency (DRDA), Phulbani, Bonded labour section of Orissa Secretariat, Bhubaneswar and block officials of G.Udayagiri, Raikis, Tumuribandh and Kotgarh.

I express my indebtedness to my friends, Mr. S.C. Sahu, M.Sc., Cashier, State Bank of India, Mr. A.Nayak, M.A., Mr. M.R.M.Rao, Lecturer in History, G.Udayagiri, for their extending hands in the smooth conduct of my field study.

I express my continued respect and esteem to my parents for their support for the completion of the work.

I am also grateful to Indian Council of Social Science Research, New Delhi for sanctioning the grant-in-aid to undertake the field study.

Finally, I owe my indebtedness to Mr. Subas Chandra Patnaik, Sr. Assistant, Berhampur University for his hearty co-operation in typing this thesis.
