ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I wish to express my thanks to Dr. M. Gajalakshmi, M.A., M.Litt., Ph.D., Reader in Economics, Madurai Kamaraj University for having supervised my work with care and affection right from the beginning.

I am highly indebted to Dr. Abdul Aziz, M.A., Ph.D., Professor and Head, Economics Unit, Institute for Social and Economic Change, under whose guidance as additional supervisor this work has been completed. He took immense pain in going through several drafts of the thesis and making very useful suggestions for its improvement. But for his able guidance, it would have been difficult for me to bring out the thesis in this form. I profusely thank him for his kindness encouragement and ungrudging guidance throughout the completion of this work.

I am grateful to Dr. R. Sankararamalingam, M.A., M.Litt., Ph.D., Professor and Head, Department of Economics, Madurai Kamaraj University and Dr. A.M. Nalla Gounden, M.A., Ph.D., Professor and Head of the Department of Econometrics, University of Madras who evinced keen interest in my work. They are the sources of inspiration to me at all times. I wish to express my profound thanks and gratitude to Late Dr. John D.K. Sunder Singh, former Professor and Head, Department of Economics, Madurai Kamaraj University for his encouragement, help and support for completing my research work.

I thank the employers and officials of the Cotton Textile Mills located in Madurai District, viz., Annamalaiar Mills, Madurai District Co-operative Spinning Mills, Melur, Thiagarajar Mills, Sivakami Mills, Bojaraj Textile Mills Ltd., Mahalakshmi Mills, Sitalakshmi Mills, Sivakami Mills, Madura Coats Ltd., Centenary Mills and Bhuvaneshwari Mills for having permitted me to collect data from the records of their mills. I express my profound thanks to the trade union leaders at the Plant, District, State and National levels who furnished valuable information at the time of my interview with them. My special thanks are due to veteran and senior trade union leader, P.A. Kanniah who provided me with useful information regarding the history of Trade Union Movement in Madras and Madurai regions and the current policies and practices of trade unions. I am grateful to S.R.V. Surendran, President, Madura Labour Union for his ungrudging and voluntary help at the time of the collection of data for this study.

My special thanks are due to Dr. R.S. Deshpande, Assistant Professor, Rural Economics Unit, V. Mohanasundaram and A.M. Jose, Ph.D., fellows of the Institute for Social and Economic Change, Bangalore and to S.V. Hariharan, my colleague in the Department of Economics for their assistance in the statistical and computational works.

I wish to express my grateful thanks to my friends, Dr. P. Maruthanayagam, Dr. R.E. Benjamin, Dr. N. Durairaj, Dr. U. Dharmarajan and Mr. P. Veeman who helped me immensely in all possible ways.

I thank the Director of the Institute of Social and Economic Change, Bangalore for having permitted me to work under the supervision of Dr. Abdul Aziz and also to make use of the library.

I acknowledge with thanks the financial assistance rendered by the University Grants Commission, New Delhi.

I wish to place on record my sincere thanks to the Vice-Chancellor and the members of the governing body of the Madurai Kamaraj University for having granted me leave of absence for two years to complete my research work.
